Wendy Wheaton

Senior Global Education Advisor

Committed humanitarian supporting high performing cross functional teams| Leadership | Policy | Research |Strategy | Education | Protection | Program Management | Contracts

wendylwheaton@gmail.com

Linkedin

Contact

25 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

As a Senior Education Advisor for various organizations, Wendy led and contributed to global education programs focused on vulnerable populations, including refugees and children in conflict zones. She partnered on policy development, strategic program design, and child protection initiatives to advance USAID's mission of sustainable development and global well-being. Wendy leveraged leadership and cross-functional collaboration to address systemic challenges in education access and quality.

Her core competencies include strategic problem-solving, leadership development, and multilingual communication, all while building high-performing teams. Having taught, spoken, or studied at Columbia, Harvard, Georgetown, George Washington, Drew, University of Massachusetts Amherst, and Rutgers

Skills & Expertise:

Program/Project Management, Grants Management, Policy Development, Humanitarian Assistance, Stakeholder Engagement, Conflict & Stabilization, Strategic Planning, MEL, Proposal Writing

Sectors of Work:

International Development, Public Health, Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs, Emergency Relief, Human Rights

Languages Spoken:

English, French

College, Wendy is committed to how theory and practice come together in fostering equitable education systems and protecting at-risk communities through innovative and inclusive approaches.

JOIN US

contact@wice.org.

WICE